

JOB ADVERT
Wildlife Conservation Society

Job Title	Program Officer
Reports To	Field Program Coordinator
Department/Group	Field Program Implementation	Location	Ho Chi Minh city

Background:

The Wildlife Conservation Society (WCS) is an international non-governmental organization that saves wildlife and wild places through science, conservation action, education, and inspiring people to value nature. WCS has been working to address forest crimes in Vietnam since 2005. Since, we have established a well-respected presence in the country, generated a wide range of reliable data on the wildlife trade, trained over 850 law enforcement officers from a range of agencies in investigation and enforcement techniques, and distributed a number of technical handbooks and guides. We have assisted central agencies to review and propose intelligence analysis systems, inter-agency agreements and cooperation, national legislation, and have supported bi-lateral dialogues to suppress the wildlife trade and strengthen Vietnam's enforcement response.

Scope of work:

Under the direct supervision of the Field Program Coordinator, the Program Officer is responsible to provide technical oversight of programme management and implement activities from assigned grants. S/he also participates in the formulation, implementation, and monitoring and evaluation of program activities.

Main responsibilities:

The Program Officer works in conjunction with other team members to execute assigned works in the following fields to ensure the program and projects function smoothly and at maximum effectiveness:

Strategic objectives

- Identify, and build and maintain relationships with key contacts and strategic partners for policy and programme implementation
- Carry out field and desk research/reviews into the dynamics of wildlife trade, law enforcement in Vietnam and provide realistic and practical recommendations for improvements
- Support to develop and institutionalize wildlife trafficking training modules into relevant colleges/academies
- Provide technical inputs into development and implementation of grant activities in the Southern Viet Nam
- Facilitate inter-agency and inter-governmental enforcement cooperation

Programmatic objectives

- Draft and contribute to grant's work plans, activity reports and all other related reports
- Establish and maintain partnerships with key government agencies at central and provincial levels in Viet Nam, research/academic institutions, CSOs, NGOs and individuals relating to wildlife law enforcement.
- Provide inputs to fundraising efforts relating to species, investigation and law enforcement.
- Identify communication opportunities and strategy to raise awareness about wildlife trade prevention
- Execute project activities in Southern grants as outlined in the workplan
- Provide interpretation and written translation of program activities
- Represent WCS at relevant networks, workshops, and meetings as requested
- Perform other duties as requested by senior management

Knowledge, Skills, Abilities:

- A bachelor's degree in conservation, biodiversity, biology or related field; a masters' degree will be an added advantage.
- Minimum of 3-5 years of relevant experience as project/programme officer; previous experience in the conservation/environmental sector would be an asset
- Knowledge of Viet Nam law enforcement systems and legislation desirable; Experience in working with Government Ministries and Law Enforcement agencies is an asset
- Demonstrated ability to prioritize tasks and work well under pressure
- Strong critical thinking skills, ability to problem solve and resourcefulness
- Experience in the use of computers and office software packages and handling of web based management systems.
- Fluency in English and Vietnamese language
